Use of Manupatra Legal Research Database

This is to inform all students of the Department of Law and Justice, Bangladesh University of Business and Technology (BUBT) that the University has subscribed to the Manupatra Legal Research Database at the BUBT Central Library.

Students are encouraged to access and utilize this advanced legal research platform with the guidance and assistance of the officers and staff of the BUBT Central Library, whenever necessary. The database provides comprehensive legal resources, including statutes, case laws, legal commentaries, journals, and AI-assisted research tools, which will significantly enhance legal learning and research activities.

It is important to note that the continuation or renewal of this subscription depend upon the extent of its effective utilization by students and faculty members. Therefore, all students are strongly encouraged to use the database regularly and responsibly so that the University may consider renewing the subscription in the future.

All the Students of the Department of Law and Justice, BUBT are hereby directed to use the Manupatra Legal Research Database as a mandatory research tool while preparing their research papers, assignments, presentation and other academic works under the course. The use of this platform will enable students to conduct authentic, comprehensive, and up-to-date legal research.

All students are requested to make the best use of this valuable academic resource to strengthen their legal research skills and contribute to a culture of quality legal scholarship within the Department.

Your cooperation in ensuring the effective use of this facility will be highly appreciated.
